Dedication

Because we are grateful to you for . . .

Making us stop to think before we jumped,

a bility to understand young people,

r eserving ample time for us,

t eaching us right from wrong,

h elping us in all ways,

a nd somehow making us believe in ourselves.

B ring to our minds memories we have enjoyed in our four years together.

J ust and lasting patience we did not often deserve,

O ffering encouragement when we were depressed,

i mplicit faith in our class--the class of '54,

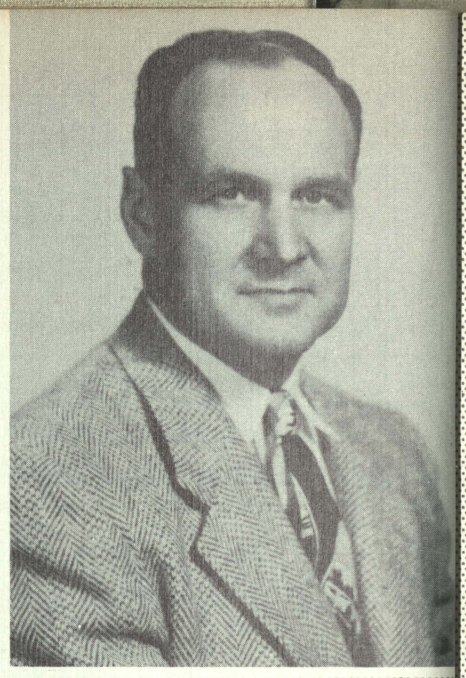
n ever letting us down when we needed you,

e ndeavoring to guide us without dominating us,

S eeing last, but not least, our yearbook completed.

We, the Class of 1954, do dedicate to you,
Mrs. Joines, our "EAGLE'S NEST"

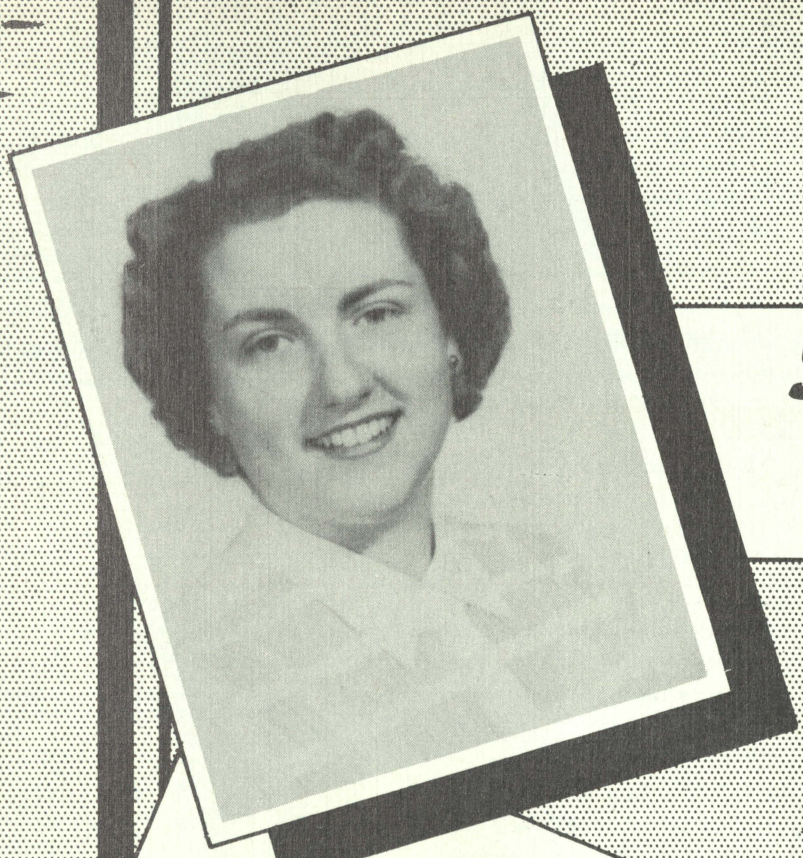
Principal's Message



You have successfully completed your secondary education and are ready to take your place in an adult society. I am not sure you realize the responsibilities and obligations which are yours as a member of this society. The success and future of your school, your church, and other civic organizations will depend upon your willingness to cooperate with the advancements of these organizations. Are you willing to sacrifice selfish interest and personal prestige if it means that your community would advance if you did?

Your first obligation should be to your home and your community but you should look beyond these if we are to have a world safe for free people. Our country has developed a concept of understanding and needs of humanity never before approached. It seems to be the last hope for a free world that these concepts be spread to all countries where people are oppressed and where the fear of God is unknown. Yes, you have completed your secondary education but a far greater job lies ahead.

Senior Class Sponsor



Congratulations to Seniors

I wish to extend my congratulations to each of you at the completion of your high school education. With the great challenges that face you, I sincerely hope that with firm moral and spiritual convictions you will be able to stand steadfast for the virtues which have made our country a leading nation in the world.

It has seemed to be the trend in past years that man's sense of values has become warped; his ideas of service are based on personal gain and not upon the Golden Rule. To be able to profit by the mistakes of others will bring its reward to you.

My sincere wish, as your class advisor, is, "May each of you have the wisdom to choose the path which will bring success and happiness as a just reward."

Mrs. Herman Koenig

Class Song

(Tune of "Yellow Rose of Texas")

As our days in school are ending,
And we are bound to part,
We say to one another--
From the bottom of our hearts,
"We've enjoyed our days together
And grieve to see them end,
But life lies out before us
With various beckoning trends."

To our teachers we are grateful
For their help and patience, too,
And to our Board and Principal
For support and guidance, true;
To our parents we give all
For untold blessings given,
Now each will try to build a life
And from goodness ne'er be riven.

CHORUS:
We're the class of fifty-four,
And our school trials are o'er,
We've worked along together
Until we've reached this goal;
And now as we are parting
And go our separate ways,
We cherish many memories
That can never be erased.

Alma Mater

Now we sing our Alma Mater
For the school we love so well
Baltimore, your memories linger
As your loyal students tell.

All the days we spent together
Make us love you more and more
Baltimore we love your classrooms
Where we pondered o'er and o'er.

Years may dim our recollection
But we'll ne'er forget thy name
Though your walls may fall and crumble
We will love thee just the same.

CHORUS:
Alma Mater, Alma Mater
This our song we sing to thee
Baltimore we hail your colors
Green and White shall always be.

Senior Class Officers

Senior History

In September of 1942 thirty-two doting mothers kissed fourteen little angels and eighteen little devils and sent them off to their day of school.

Then came the day when we entered Junior High School--the day we felt so big and yet so scared. Miss Eirman pointed us in the right direction and we began our long and rough struggle to graduation.

Through the years forty-five boys and girls have been associated with our class at some time or another.

There were seventeen of us in that first year of high school with Mrs. Dale as our advisor. We elected the following as our class officers: President, Jehu Breasure; Vice President, Ray Daisey; Secretary and Treasurer, Veronica Layton. Nearing the end of the year Mrs. Dale left us under the guidance of Mrs. Sanford Noble. A Valentine Dance, a movie at Rehoboth, a bake, and a hayride were our only activities.

Our Sophomore year brought us a new advisor--Miss Dorothy Carter--who later in the year joined the "old married folks" as Mrs. Charles Steele. We took great pride in electing Gene Murray, President; Jehu Breasure, Vice President; Janice Murray, our Secretary; and Polly Snyder, Treasurer.

At Christmas we all attended a party given by Miss Carter where refreshments were served and Christmas carols were sung. We gave a Valentine Dance again this year, with Billy Chrisp and his orchestra from Lewes providing the music. In May we joined forces with the Freshmen and gave a turkey dinner. Our last activity was a May Pole Dance followed by a hayride to Rehoboth.

When we finally reached our Junior year we had fifteen members and a new advisor, Miss Nancy Lee Gum. But before the end of the year we lost six of our members--Jehu Layton, Wilbert Powell, Robert Robinson, Julian Vickers, Veronica Layton, Ruth Burbage.

The following were elected as our class leaders: President, Gerald Wilgus; Vice President, Ray Daisey; Secretary, Patsy Truitt; Treasurer, Minerva Smith.

This year we really got down to business. Since our treasury was very low we took on the extra task of selling stockings and Christmas wreaths. The first activity on our schedule was a Halloween Dance. Following this dance we had a bake at Millville Fire Hall. In November at the annual Farm Show we sold refreshments. In February we gave a Valentine Dance which was decorated beautifully. This year our class attempted a "Chicken and Dumpling Supper" with the help of our mothers and the Civic Club. Our movie at Rehoboth, "The Thief of Venice," was a total flop. The greatest thrill of the Junior year is, of course, the "Junior Prom" given in honor of the Seniors. The main attraction of our prom was the pagoda. George Madden and his orchestra provided the music. We closed the year with another bake at the Millville Fire Hall.

At last we were on the last mile of the road! We were Seniors. We could tell everyone else what to do. Boy, did we get fooled. We didn't have time to tell anyone anything. Patsy Truitt has forsaken us and joined the "old married folks." Again this year we have a new advisor, Mrs. Ruth Koenig. Our small class now has fallen down to eight. We elected as our class officers the following: President, Gerald Wilgus; Vice President, Jehu Breasure; Secretary, Polly Snyder; Treasurer, Minerva Smith.

Our greatest task this year was our "Annual." We held a Christmas Dance with Whitey Bant and his orchestra furnishing the music.

On May 27 we left for Washington, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Koenig and Mr. and Mrs. Graef. Since there were so few of us, we went in cars. Those four wonderful days of living in a hotel, sightseeing, and simply enjoying ourselves will never be forgotten by anyone of us. After returning from our trip we began preparing for Commencement.

All too soon the time arrived to bid our old alma mater farewell. Although this day had been long-awaited, we dreaded the thought of leaving. But then, all good things must come to an end. May the memories of the days we spent together never be forgotten by anyone of us.

Last Will and Testament

To the class of '55, we, the seniors, leave our size, the many extra days we found it necessary to take in order to complete a small task; the boys leave their many unnecessary excuse cards and the girls, their ability to get alone as "one unit."

To the Sophomore Class, we leave the endless time of waiting for the lunch bell, plus the excuses, which we insisted were true, that permitted us to leave early.

To the Freshmen, we leave the ability to learn how to get out of all difficulties encounted with teachers.

To our Principal, Faculty and Board, we leave a jar of Bayer Aspirin, realizing it could not heal the endless headaches that we have caused.

To the cafeteria staff, we will our sincere appreciation for so patiently putting up with our nonsense as we pass through the lunch line.

To the custodians, we leave several new brooms, in the place of those which they have worn out in their efforts to clean up after us.

Nelda Adkins leaves her bashfulness to Fay Wingate.

Jehu Brasure leaves his weight to Joshua Smith.

Ray Daisy leaves his love for one girl to Curt Harper.

Gene Murray leaves his trips to Selbyville to Linwood Townsend.

Janice Murray leaves her good marks to Oliver McCabe.

Minerva Smith leaves her height to Timmothy Murray.

Polly Snyder leaves her skill in regard to driving to Nancy Turner.

Gerald Wilgus wills his ability to play basketball to Wayne Collins.

Nelda Adkins wills her black hair to Jean Hickman.

Jehu Brasure wills his ability to leave school in the afternoon to Earl Murray.

Ray Daisey wills his ability to race and beat anything on the road to Joe Burbage.

Gene Murray leaves his ability to go one place and tell his parents another to Linda Quillen.

Janice Murray wills her sweaters and thoughts of a good time to Shirley Lane.

Minerva Smith leaves her books and long hours of studying to Janet Hill.

Polly Snyder leaves her ability to play basketball to Josephine Megee and Irene Cathall, and the task of writing letters to Arneva Brasure.

Gerald Wilgus leaves his ability to lie and look the teacher straight in the eyes to Raymond Rickards.

Minerva Smith leaves her afternoon rides to Connie Warrington. She advises you to be aware of the five-minute bell.

Polly Snyder wills her quietness to Mamielee Iannascolio.

Janice Murray wills her ability to cook to Nancy Turner. She leaves her shyness to Joyce Vandergrift and Rosalea Smith.

Jehu Brasure wills his ability to high-jump to Tommy Frey.

Gerald Wilgus wills his muscular physique to Leroy Marvel.

Nelda Adkins leaves her cute little blushes to Edith Megee.

Gene Murray leaves his "old" car to Gene Daisey and Kenneth Tusshoff.

Minerva Smith leaves her majorette suit to Valdia Megee.

Polly Snyder leaves her curly hair to Shirley Collins.

Ray Daisey leaves his hall chats to Curtis Harper and Sandra Hall.

Jehu Brasure wills his Ford to Oliver McCabe and Wayne Collins.

Gene Murray leaves his height to Linwood Townsend.

Polly Snyder leaves her freckles to Charlis Hitchens.

Minerva Smith leaves her daintiness to Alice Townsend.

Ray Daisey leaves his height to Wayne West.

Nelda Adkins wills her short hair to Billy Jean Derrickson.

Janice Murray leaves her bangs to Nancy Turner.

Minerva Smith leaves her height to Mona Rickards.

Gerald Wilgus leaves his thoughts for one girl only Rancel Evans.

Nelda Adkins leaves her hours of waiting and writing letters until the boat brings him to shore to Norma Lee Evans.
